There are classes for everyone, including some that don't take a lot of time e.g. photos, a jug of garden flowers, a vegetable animal, a limerick, etc. etc.

Donations of bottles for the Tombola and baking for the teas would be much appreciated

For schedules please check out the website at www.ohvh.org.uk or send an email request to show@ohvh.org.uk

Everyone is welcome to join in the village show – it's very informal, you don't need an allotment or a large garden. There are a wide variety of classes for all ages; a jug of mixed garden flowers, photography, cookery and several new classes.

Do join in and help to make this year's show another success. Over Haddon proudly has one of the few remaining village shows.

If you'd like to make the village show even more special, why not bring out the bunting.

And don't forget the auction where you can buy excellent baking, vegetables and flowers.
